Singer/Songwriter and two-time Kerrville New Folk Finalist Sonia Lee sings in a pure, sweet voice, reminiscent of early Emmy Lou Harris and Alison Krauss. From the U.S. to Ukraine, Lee has engaged audiences at intimate house concerts, nightclubs and full-capacity festivals with her inspirational message of hope and redemption.

Originally from Rochester, New York, Sonia followed her songwriter's heart to Nashville, TN in 1998. She has released 3 critically acclaimed CDs.

On her latest CD, "Chance To Start Over" (Ukrainian Princess Records 2007) Sonia paints a deeply personal and passionate portrait of her own journey through addiction and her path to healing.

"Chance To Start Over" is full of messages of peace, hope and metamorphosis. Sonia Lee's beautifully written songs leave you feeling inspired and wanting to hear more."

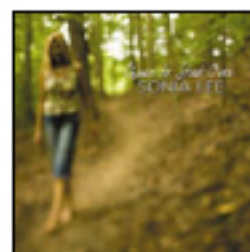

- Debbie Carroll, MusiCares Senior Director

Produced by Dove Award Winner, Kim McLean, "True" is an album of self-penned and co-written anthems and moving ballads drawn from the tapestry of Sonia's own "True" life.

"This is a wonderful CD with great production, provocative lyrics and catchy melodies."

- Lori Shropshire, Music News Nashville

Lee's first CD, "From the Heart", is a collection of traditional Ukrainian folk songs re-imagined with Sonia's own fresh, unique interpretation.

Sonia Lee has shared her music and her story with folks around the country..
